NIPFP-IIPF International Conference on “Papers in Public Finance”

Call for Papers

National Institute of Public Finance and Policy, New Delhi, India in collaboration with International Institute of Public Finance (IIPF), Munich invites you to submit papers in Public Finance for the forthcoming International conference on “Papers in Public Finance” on June 29th and 30th, 2021 (online). The conference aims to focus on conceptual and empirical research and methodological advancements in public economics, with a special focus this year on fiscal policy in the time of covid19 pandemic in Asia. However, the conference is not confined to this topic. Papers are invited from academia and policy practitioners on issues broadly in the area of public economics. Fifteen to twenty papers will be selected for the two-day conference, arranged in five technical sessions. In addition to these papers, selected papers from young scholars will also be included as two poster sessions in the event. The event is online. The deadline for submitting papers is April 15th, 2021. The authors of the accepted papers will be intimated by May 15th 2021. Papers can be submitted in soft copy to publicfinanceconf2021@nipfp.org.in, as email attachments, and with three JEL codes as email subject.

There is no submission fee for the papers.
